Rev. W. D. Humphrey, who has been conducting a meeting in a tent near Sheridan, was here Friday enroute to his home at Eldorado, Ill.

PRIZE WINNING ESSAY

RUPERT A. BELT HAS BEST STORY.

Our farm contains 335 acres of land of which 25 acres are in woods, 175 in pasture, 85 in meadow and 50 in corn.

Our farm has some hills but part of it is level, and it is divided into seven fields and few small lots.

We have 100 hogs, 30 head of cattle, 2 mules and 8 horses. We do not raise sheep or goats as other stock will not thrive with them.

Our fence is partly woven wire and part rail fence. We do not use picket fence as it is not satisfactory.

The reason I desire to remain on the farm is that we can get plenty of fresh air and enjoy the benefits of health.

We have fresh eggs, fresh milk and butter and all kinds of fresh vegetables.

Farming is the most independent occupation a man can have. You have the privilege of being your boss and going where you please and doing as you please.

I believe if the soil was limed it would bring in greater financial returns.

A manure spreader is a great help to the farmers it spreads the manure more evenly than it can possibly be done by hand.

Silos are a great help to dairymen as the ensilage makes the cows produce a greater amount of milk and richer cream; then a

TO REDUCE FIRE DANGER.

GOV. McCREARY ISSUES PROCLAMATION.

October 8 has been officially designated as a clean-up day in Kentucky for the purpose of reducing fire dangers.

If this day were religiously observed throughout the Commonwealth there would be fewer fires to record within the next twelve months to come. The general removal of rubbish in and about business houses, factories, residences and other places would amount to a big reduction in fire hazard. The putting in order of houses and premises in advance of winter would save many losses that are sure to come otherwise through defective flues, stoves and other heating arrangements and through the neglect of these precautions, which, while simple and easily practical, are of much importance to personal and general welfare.

Some years ago the people of the United States became aware of the fact that Fourth of July celebrations of the boisterous, powder-burning sort, were causing a heavy annual loss in life and property. The injudicious use of fireworks resulted in many deaths and serious injuries and in the destruction or damage of

NO REASON FOR IT

You Are Shown A Way Out.

There can be no reason why any reader of this who suffers the tortures of an aching back, the annoyance of urinary disorders, the pains and dangers of kidney ills will fail to heed the word of a resident of this locality who has found relief. The following is convincing proof.

F. L. Stewart, Princeton, Ky., says: "We still use Doan's Kidney Pills in our family and consider them an excellent remedy for kidney disease. They have never failed to give me great relief whenever we have taken them. The statement given by a member of my family some years ago was true. I am glad to again publicly recommend this preparation."

CROSS ROADS

(Delayed from last week.)

Your Cross Road correspondent was in Salem a few days since and met Judge C. R. Stevens and Col. G. H. Rappolee and called their attention to the New Salem items in the Record-Press concerning "Old Wind Bag." Your correspondent talked to Judge Stevens about plowing corn with old "Ball." He remembered quite well, the day referred to by New Salem correspondent, as that was the first time he had met Maj. Harpending and his two pals, Thos. Nickels and Mr. Jesse Dooley. They came to the field where the Judge was plowing corn with old "Ball," on Wednesday the 3rd day of July, 1869, the season being a little late. The Maj. told the Judge that he and his friends were in search of roots and herbs, such as Snake Root, Ginseng, etc., and after showing the Judge their formulas and explaining to him the wonderful curative qualities of Snake Root Pills, Ginseng Syrup and Featherington's Salve. They persuaded the Judge to join them in their search of the roots and herbs, and build an immense laboratory for compounding their celebrated family remedies, the Judge to have one fourth interest in the Company. The Judge, then and there, abandoned his promising crop of corn, pulled the bridle off of old "Ball," which he did very reluctantly, and buried himself in the forests with his newly made friends and partners in business in search of nature's own remedies for the cure of lumbago, bald-head and appendicitis. The Judge says that he was swindled out of his interest in the aforesaid business, lost his likely crop, and had to buy corn the next season. The Judge well remembers that celebrated game of "seven-up" played between himself, the Major, Thos. Nickels and Mr. Jess Dooley, on Friday the 17th day of July, 1869, which took place just fourteen days after he had met the Maj. and his pals. When the Judge saw this part of the New Salem items, there was a merry twinkle in his eyes, his mind wonderfully clear and vivid on this subject. He says that this game commenced about 6 a. m., and closed about 6 p. m. He says that when the game closed that he stood 20 cents to the good. The Major's two pals did fairly, but the Major had lost all of his money, his barlow knife, pocketbook and bandana handkerchief and all he saved was the formulas for his celebrated family remedies and a small box of Featherington's Salve. Judge Stevens and Col. Rappolee say that it is true that Maj. Harpending came to them with his ginseng syrup, which he assured them was compounded under the Pure Food and Drug Act and prevailed upon them to try it for lumbago and bald-head and these two worthy gentlemen took the Major's remedy according to the Major's personal direction, at the same time the Major complained of symptoms of appendicitis and he began to take his own remedy which he said was a sure cure for lumbago, bald-head and appendicitis. After imbibing freely of Ginseng Syrup the Major took a dose of Snake Root Pills, appointing himself with Featherington's Salve, left his nag hitched behind Farris' drug store and started in the direction of home. The next morning he was found in the Alvis woods where he had spent the greater part of the night before. When Judge Stevens got home the chickens were crowing for day. Col. Rappolee fell asleep in his chair, where he remained until the next sunrise. These are splendid remedies.

SPECIAL

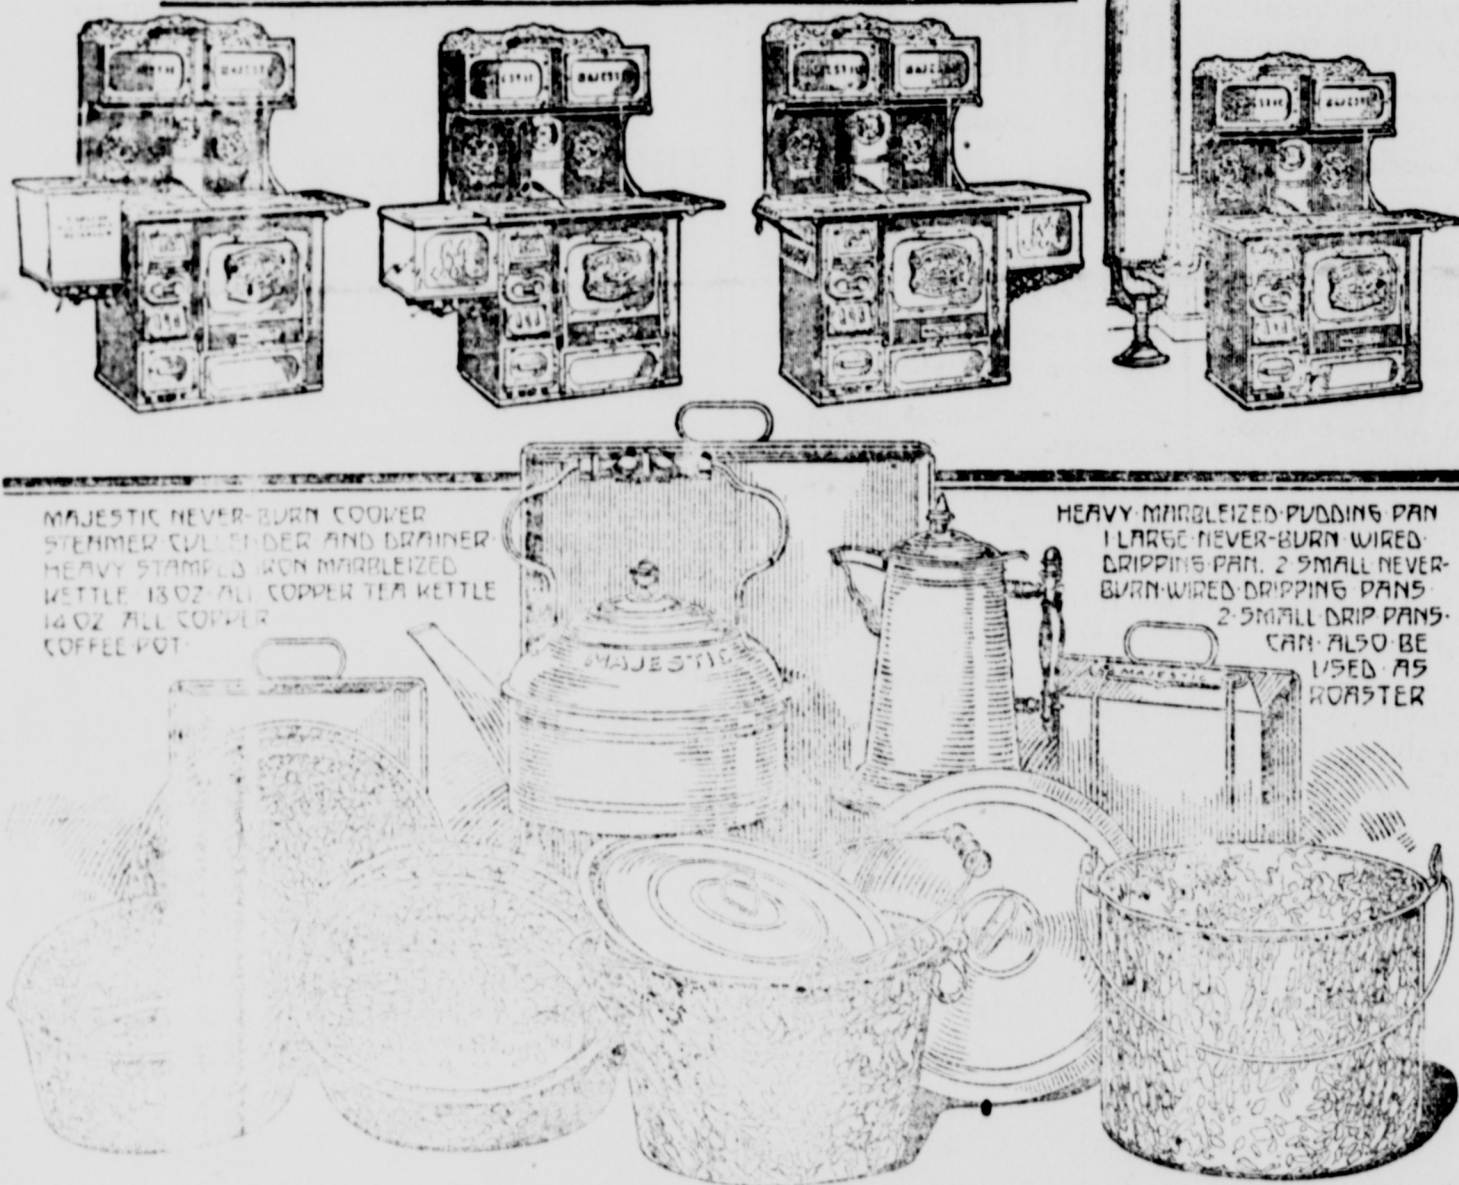

All during this week a special demonstrator direct from the MAJESTIC FACTORY will be glad to show you "ALL ABOUT RANGES"—SHOW YOU why the MAJESTIC is the best range on earth at any price.

Come, If You Intend To Buy or Not.

EDUCATION lies in KNOWING Things. KNOW why the oven of a range is heated—KNOW how the water is heated—HOW the top is heated—Why the MAJESTIC uses so little fuel—KNOW how a range is made inside and outside. This education may serve you in the future. DON'T OVERLOOK a chance to KNOW things shown by one who knows. COME.

SET OF WARE FREE

MAJESTIC RANGES ARE MADE IN ALL SIZES AND STYLES

WHICH SHALL IT BE?

Do you intend to continue laboring, burning valuable fuel and destroying high priced food with that old worn-out cook stove?

You know that old stove eats up a lot of fuel each year.

You know you have trouble in getting it to bake just right, in fact spoil a batch of bread every once in a while—you know it costs considerable for yearly repairs.

Stop and think and figure.

Would'nt it pay you to buy a good range
a range with a reputation—

The Great Majestic Malleable and Charcoal Iron Range?

You make no mistake in buying the GREAT MAJESTIC—it's the range with the REPUTATION—ask your neighbors. Then, too, it's made just right and of the right kind of material—MALLEABLE AND CHARCOAL IRON—riveted together practically air-tight-lined with pure asbestos board—parts being malleable cast break—has a movable reservoir and an oven that won't warp—that why the Majestic uses so little fuel, bakes just right every day in the year. (broans bread just right all over without turning) heats 15 gallons of water while breakfast is cooking properly handled lasts a life time, and costs practically nothing for repairs.

Don't buy the range you expect to last a lifetime "unsight unseen," you'll be sure to be disappointed. Come to our store during demonstration week, see the GREAT MAJESTIC—have its many exclusive features explained—find out why the MAJESTIC is 300 percent stronger than other ranges where most ranges are weakest.

Don't Overlook the Date. This is a Special Invitation to You and Your Friends and Neighbors

General Business Outlook.

Conditions in the business and industrial world are decidedly brighter than they were, and leading interests all over the country entertain most hopeful expectations for the betterment of business generally. The greatest crops in the history of the United States are promised as per latest official reports, and with such an outlook we ought to be on the threshold of country-wide prosperity. As a nation we have the natural resources, the markets and the financial ability to conduct great enterprises, and with a wonderful array of favorable factors there are good reasons to expect business will soon reach record proportions. Railroad earnings are increasing, the steel and iron business is progressing in fine style and floor spar demand has risen to a high level. All things considered the country is in an excellent shape to get under full swing once more. Of course a presidential campaign is on and politics and tariff talk will be factors of more or less moment for some time. But business is bound to push along in a way that will eventually be unparalleled in the history of the country.

Root's Conscience.

Senator Elihu Root, of New York, presided at the convention which re-nominated Taft for president and controlled and directed the forces accomplishing it and it was he who was dominant in the fight against Roosevelt. What sincerity is his? What must be in the man's heart of hearts? Here is his declaration as made in 1904 in an address before the Union League Club of New York:

"I count it my friends, as one of the greatest privileges of my life to have been able in that day of great sorrow, when our lamented President McKinley was carried away, to have been able to stand by and hold up the hands of his true and loyal successor, Theodore Roosevelt. Men say he is not safe. He is not safe for the men who wish to prosecute selfish schemes for the public detriment, but I say to you that he has been these years since President McKinley's death the greatest conservative force for the protection of property and our institutions in the city of Washington. I would rather have my boys taught to admire the honesty and frankness, the truth and loyalty, the honor and devotion of Theodore Roosevelt than to have all the wealth of this great metropolis. The work of President Roosevelt has more weight for good in this land than that of any score, or all of his detractors put together."

A Man of Men.

Measured in every way and judged by every standard, Governor Wilson completely fills the bill of a man who should occupy the high office of President of the greatest nation on earth. Capable, scholarly, courageous, safe and patriotic, he will make an ideal President whose single aim will be to obey the constitution and do the greatest good for the greatest number. His majority should be so large that it will serve lasting notice to the interests that this is the government of the people by the people, and not of the people by the trusts.

IF A WATCH OF OURS GOES WRONG

We make it right for you or we make it right with you.

Which means that you cannot possibly be a loser.

No, we don't take any great chance by offering to do that.

Because our watches are watch certainties.

They have reputation behind them and they aren't likely to start now to disappoint.

But if one should, as we said, we agree to be the loser.

What better assurance could you have than that?

Governor Marshall.

It was real inspiration that caused the Baltimore Convention to place Governor Thomas R. Marshall on the ticket with Governor Wilson. As Governor of Indiana he has demonstrated his capacity and his public expressions before and after the nomination stamp him as a man that should be honored and trusted. The Governor is a firm believer that any system of government which enables one man to take advantage of another is not a system under which a Democratic condition of life can thrive, and his life time effort has been for a return to the first principles.

Trenton, N. J. Oct 2.—Today returns from the state-wide primary in New Jersey shows overwhelming defeat for James Smith jr. in the Democratic primary contest for United States Senator, and victory for Governor Wilson's choice, ex-Congressman Hughes.

The forces behind Wilson rolled up more than 20,000 plurality. Essex county supported Smith by about three to one, but the remaining twenty counties went for Hughes.

Hughes ran about seven to one against Smith in Monroe, five to one in Mercer and about three to one in Hudson. Smith received about 23,000 and Hughes about 46,000.

Bryan Springs New Epigram.

Greely, Col. Sept. 27.—Bryan spoke here today and characterized Taft by saying he "went into office with a plurality of a million and will go out by unanimous consent."

GEN. U. S. GRANT'S SON IS FOR WILSON.

New York, Oct. 2.—Jesse R. Grant was appointed a member of the finance committee of the New York Democratic state committee today. Julian A. Beaty, was appointed secretary.

Mr. Grant, who is a son of President Grant, is one of the most enthusiastic supporters of Governor Wilson.

"I am going to do all in my power to bring around the election of Governor Wilson," said Mr. Grant "I know of no one better equipped to grace the White House than Governor Wilson. His views on the tariff are appealing to the substantial and sensible business men of the country."

I think he is going to receive the greatest number of Republican votes ever given to a Democratic candidate for office. He is not only going to draw from Roosevelt's following [and this may sound like a remarkable statement, but I believe it is true] but he is also going to decrease the ranks of the old line Republicans until they will present on election day a mighty weak and battered line.

"If Governor Wilson is to lose any Democratic votes I have yet to hear of the fact. The independent voter is in favor of him in view of all this I do not see the slightest chance for any of the other candidates to even give him a close race."

"In this campaign I am convinced that Governor Wilson is going to gain ground every day, rather than lose. My reason for stating this is that the people are becoming better acquainted with him and we are learning of the earnestness of the man and his high type of citizenship and his marvelous personality. I would not undertake to predict what will be the fate of the Republican party after this election but I am convinced that it will never be swallowed up by the followers of Roosevelt."

TO REDUCE FIRE DANGER.

many buildings by fire. A movement was begun for a "safe and sane Fourth" and it has progressed to such a degree that the yearly death rolls and damage bills in American cities have been cut down to a mere fraction of what they were in former years. This result indicates the possibility for good that lie in concerted effort. The people are just beginning to realize the enormity of the fire waste in the United States. When they are thoroughly aroused to action they will take steps to reduce it.

Last year the people of Kentucky paid out more than five and a quarter millions for fire insurance and the companies paid out more than three and a half millions in losses. This of course takes no account of the immense amount of property destroyed on which there was "not a dollar of insurance." Fire losses in the country at large amount to more than $200,000,000 a year, and a big percentage of this heavy bill is due to the negligence of the people who fail to take the proper precautions against fire. It is possible to save much property and much distress by timely diligence in eliminating hazards, and clean-up day should be signalized by some effective work of that kind.

This is forcefully put and should appeal to the people of our State in preserving the wealth thereof.

We are addressing you, hoping to have your assistance in the direction of calling the public's attention to the importance of confronting this proclamation.

Trusting we will not be disappointed in our expectations, but to remain, Yours Truly,

LOST IN A CAVE.

FRIGHTFUL EXPERIENCE OF FOUR BOYS.

Last Saturday afternoon, Presley Henry, son of James Henry, George Dollar, son of Gilly Dollar, Milton McAdams, son of Mrs. Lawson McAdams, and Gleaford Rankin, son of T. A. Rankin all of Marion had an experience which they will not soon forget. The boys were gathering walnuts on the Wilson hill farm and concluded to explore a cave which penetrates the bluff. They took the precaution to take a candle, some matches and a long string which they tied securely to a tree before descending into the depths of Crittenden county's miniature "Mammoth Cave." This was in the early afternoon. They had not gone far until they lost their way and to make matters worse the candle went out, the string broke and the match supply was found to be short. They groped around some time looking for the exit and finally began to yell for help. Harry Moore, son of John A. Moore, who was one of the nutting party did not venture into the cavern, heard their cries and hurried to the city and gave the alarm. After considerable delay the parents were found and went to the entrance accompanied by a large crowd. Lawrence Robinson was one of the most diligent friends to the entrapped boys. Wyley McCain, colored, was considerably excited as he was at first told that his son Howard was enroute to China through the bowels of the earth. The boys were rescued after being entombed four and one half hours and all were in tears when brought to the surface of mother earth just after dark. Presley Henry embraced Lawrence Robinson and told him he never looked so good to him in all his life. It is said some of the other boys and their parents had quite affecting meetings in the back yards when they reached their

Be Merciful to Thy Brother.

John J. Crittenden, the eloquent Kentucky lawyer of a past generation, was once defending a murderer. Every one knew that the man was guilty. A great crowd assembled to attend the trial and to listen to the speeches of the many able lawyers engaged on both sides of the case. When Crittenden arose to defend the prisoner silence prevailed in the court room. Everyone was eager to hear what the distinguished Kentuckian had to say. After an able argument in behalf of his client, Mr. Crittenden ended his eloquent plea in the following beautiful words:

"When God conceived the thought of man's creation, He called to him three ministering angels, who wait constantly upon the throne—Justice, Truth and Mercy—and thus addressed them:

"Shall we make this man?"
"O God, make him not," said Justice, sternly. "For he will surely trample upon Thy laws."
"And Truth, what sayest thou?"
"O God, make him not, for none but God is perfect, and he will surely sin against Thee."

"And Mercy, what sayest thou?"
Then Mercy, dropping upon her knees, and looking up through her tears, exclaimed:
"O God make him; I will watch over him with my care through all the dark paths he may have to tread."

Then, Brothers, God made man and said to him: "O, man thou art the child of Mercy; go and deal mercifully."

The man was cleared.—Richmond Climax.

Will Kinnis, of the Emmaus neighborhood, was the guest of his father near here Saturday night.

Brethren, Sisters and friends

our annual protracted meeting at Seven Springs is getting close to hand, and we ought to get in readiness for the meeting—not only with our every day work but get in the right spirit for the meeting. Since our last protracted meeting at this place, God has seen fit in His goodness and mercy to call away five from our midst, all living in the very shadow of the church house. But we are glad to know that all five of those were prepared to meet their God. We miss them from our church services, but the Lord doeth all things well. And dear sinner friend, this ought to be a warning to you to make preparations to meet your God for death is abroad in the land and God says in His word be ye therefore ready for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man comes and calleth for thee.

There is other machinery that is a great help to farming, such as steam and gasoline engines, threshers, mowers, rakes, hay tedders and binders. A scientific method of farming brings in the greatest financial results. Many things can be done to make farm life more enjoyable. The telephone system is a great help to the farmers as it brings them in direct communication with the city. By this they can sell all their products without going and seeing the purchaser.

The rural mail route is a great help to the farmers as they get their mail delivered to their door every day and do not have to go every day after it.

Like roads are a great help to the farmers as they can deliver their farm products at all times of the year even when it is muddy and bad.

The Parcel Post is much needed on the farm, then the farmers can get small packages direct from the city without having to send by express or freight.

SAVES SICKLES' EFFECTS

Estranged Wife Pawns Jewels to Satisfy Judgment of $8,000 Against General.

New York, Sept. 13.—The personal effects of Gen. Daniel E. Sickles, Civil war corps commander and former United States Minister to Spain, will not, as the General had feared, go under the hammer of Sheriff Julius Harburger to satisfy a judgment of about $8,000 which a trust company held against the aged soldier.

Gen. Sickles' wife, who was a belle in the court of Spain when the veteran wooed and wed her in Madrid in 1871, and from whom he has been parted for more than twenty-seven years, visited the offices of the trust company and satisfied the judgment. She did this, it was learned, through the sacrifice of valuable jewels she possessed, some of which she had worn when a girl before Gen. Sickles met her in Spain. During the times he has been estranged from her husband, Mrs. Sickles and her son have lived within a stone's throw of the General's Fifth avenue home.

Obituary.

Effie Theresa Yeager nee Hall, daughter of John W. and Mary Frances Hall, was born Feb. 14, 1887, near Golconda, Pope Co., Illinois. Died at her father's home in Bushton, Coles Co., Ill., Sept. 15, 1912, aged 25 years 7 months and 1 day. Was united in marriage to Fred J. Yeager, of Kansas City, Mo., March 18, 1908, and to this union was born one child, Ruby Mary Yeager. She leaves husband and little daughter, Ruby, father, mother, one sister and four brothers:—Mrs. Laura Florence Kemper, wife of Rev. W. W. Kemper, of the Southern Illinois Conference; James W. Hall, of Bushton, Ill.; Dr. J. F. Hall, of Cissna Park, Ill.; Everett K. Hall, of Champaign, Ill.; and Charles H. Hall, of Bushton, Ill., and also a host of friends and relatives to mourn her departure. She professed faith in Christ at about the age of fifteen and joined the M. E. church south at Groves Chapel, Livingston Co., Ky. She removed with her parents to Coulterville, Ill., Feb. 1904, placed her membership with the M. E. church in Coulterville, where it remained till death. Although she never spoke much about dying but we have sufficient evidence to believe she has gone to a better world than this. It is sad to part with loved ones, but it is sweet to know we will one day meet where parting is no more. Weep not that her toils are o'er, Weep not that her race is run, God grant we may rest as calmly When our work like her's is done,

Till then we yield with gladness, Our sister to Him to keep, And rejoice in the sweet assurance He giveth His loved ones sleep." In loving remembrance. Her sister, MRS. LAURA F. KEMPER.

Locked Steamer Clogs Chicago River.

Sept. 27.—Traffic on Chicago River was tied up eight hours to-day when the freight steamer, F. B. bound for Buffalo, carrying a cargo of 243,000 bushels of wheat, buried her stern in the sand and the current swung her across the stream closing channel.

After the gates in the drain canal at Lockport had been closed for several hours and the current in the river reversed five released the freighter.

Sea Phenomenon Seen.

Atlantic Highlands, N. J., Sept. 27.—A phosphorescent sea, a phenomenon often visible in the tropics, but rarely seen in this latitude, was noted all along the New Jersey Coast last night. The gleam cast a circle of light above the water and reached far up the shore.

As the breakers came in, their crests broke in a shower of dull glowing fire and air far in shore was filled with a peculiar odor.

The phenomenon is said to be due to a storm that passed across the coast Sunday night.

If you have young children you have perhaps noticed that disorders of the stomach are their most common ailment. To correct this you will find Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets excellent. They are easy and pleasant to take, and mild and gentle in effect. For sale by all dealers.

Cannot Support Taft for President.

Paducah, Ky., Sept. 30.—As a climax to a meeting filled with wrangling and dissatisfaction between the two factions of the Republican party, County Chairman, David Browning, offered his resignation last night and it was accepted. He explained that his purpose in resigning was to bring about harmony in the party, if possible, and because of the non-support of many Republicans and the Republican news-paper. With his resignation he filed two written reasons. One is that he is under the civil service rules.

His second reason is that he cannot support President Taft in his race for election because he does not approve of the fraudulent manner in which he obtained his nomination. Mr. Browning said that he was not a member of the Progressive party, but desired to be free and to vote for the man of his choice. It has been known for several months that Chairman Browning really endorsed Col. Roosevelt, but he claimed his allegiance to the Republican party. At the organization of the Progressive party, he was selected as a committee-man, from Kentucky.

Fortunes In Faces.

There's often much truth in the saying "her face is her fortune," but its never said where pimples, skin eruptions, blotches, or other blemishes disfigure it. Impure blood is back of them all, and shows the need of Dr. King's New Life Pills. They promote health and beauty. Try them. 25c. at Haynes & Taylor's and Jas. H. Orm's.
